

DOL – My Health

Sentences for the Board

1.

“cultures, cultures, im sick off thim,”
said bill

“ha, yuo thought thit I was goin to gett mad,” said the taechre

“but, iff yuo ar sick, uyo wil bee glade thate our newe unit iss onn health “

“good, becuase bill si uor bigges headache,” said amy

2.

“woh carez abuot health,” saide bill

“I waunt aa unite onn footbal orr
basketbal,” hee continued.

“well, ouy should gett lotts off exercise,” sad t eh teachre

“but yuo alos should leran hwo too pla safely,” sh continued

3.

the taechre tolde t eh clas too quite complaining becuase th nurse wass comin

t eh nurs iss goin too hav aa ‘Head Chek”

“what wil sh bee checkin four,” asket
ben

“ha, four bugz, cootiez, lic,” sad bill with aa luod laugf

4.

the nurs tolde t eh teahcre that noo on hade too goo with hre too th offic

“yuo mena thate non on has bugz,” sad
amy

“maybe you should chek bill again,” ami sad

Corrected Sentences

“Cultures, cultures, I’m sick of them,”
said Bill.

“Ha, you thought that I was going to get mad,” said the teacher.

“But, if are sick, you will be glad that our new unit is on health.”

“Good, because Bill is our biggest headache,” said Amy.

“Who cares about health,” said Bill.

“I want a unit on football or basketball,”
he continued.

“Well, you should get lots of exercise,”
said the teacher.

“But, you should also learn how to play safely,” she continued.

The teacher told the class to quit complaining because the nurse was coming.

The nurse is going to have a “Head Check.”

“What will she be checking for,” asked
Ben?

“Ha, for bugs, cooties, lice,” said Bill
with a loud laugh.

The nurse told the teacher that no one had to go with her to the office.

“You mean that no one has bugs,” said
Amy.

“Maybe you should check Bill, again,”
Amy said.

DOL – My Health

“yea, hee haz aa tepp hound, an I alwayz sea his scratchin,” said pepe

“Yea, he has a pet hound, and I always see him scratching,” said Pepe.

5.

t eh teacehr told th clas abuoet the visitors hwo would showe them
exercises
they were highe school studentz woh showet them runnin, weight training, an stretching “exercise iz note liked playin ,” said th
chinese girl
“four exercise, yuo hav too get youre heart an breathin ‘Pumped up’.”

The teacher told the class about the visitors who would show them
exercises.
They were high school students who showed then running, weight training, and stretching.
“Exercise is not like playing,” said the Chinese girl.
“For exercise, you have to get your heart and breathing ‘Pumped up’.”

6.

t eh highe school student inn the purpel sweats showet the clas hwo eatin helps runnin
“iff oyu onle eta meat, mikl, an fat; yuo can onle run aa shorte tim “ “iff oyu eate al th foods, you cna run longre “ “but fi ouy eta lotz off th bread foods, yuo cna run th most “

The high school student in the purple sweats showed the class how eating helps running.
“If you only eat meat, milk, and fat; you can only run a short time.”
“If you eat all the foods, you can run longer.”
“But if you eat lots of the bread foods, you can run the most.”

7.

“i dont believe th guy inn the purlpe
sweats,” said bill
“i thin thate am food lik hamburgers and fries cann help yuo run longre than bred”
“thats all i eta, an look hwo i can run,” bill said
“ha, th onle thin that yuo keep no runnin iz your nouth,” said pepe, “an thate never stops”

I don’t believe the guy in the purple
sweats,” said Bill.
“I think that Am. food like hamburgers and fries can help you run longer than bread.”
“That’s all I eat, and look how I can run,” Bill said.
“Ha, the only thing that you keep on running is your mouth,” said Pepe, “and that never stops.”

DOL – My Health

8.

bil gots angre that pepe said that hee ran him mouth

bill kept thinkin hwo hee wuold gets pepe bak

butte t eh taechre startid sayin hwo gettin along wiht othres was part off
health

sh said thate forrgivin othre peopel was as importante four god health az eatin
right an exercisin

Bill got angry that Pepe said that he ran his mouth.

Bill kept thinking how he would get Pepe back.

But the teacher started saying how getting along with others was part of health.

She said that forgiving other people was as important for good health as eating right and exercising.

9.

bil tolds the taecher taht he didnt
needin to fourgive anyon

he saids that him burgerz an fries givez hymm the strengthe too get peopel bak

but the teachre sayd that everyon needin to lov othres too enjoi their helth

she saying thta wee al hav too feel lick ewe belong wtih otherz too mak lif happ
th taechre sayd thate th holidays wer inportante four health

sh sayd that peopel needin too celebrat
an bee happ

butte tha has too bee kareful note too eats to much, not to drinke an driv, an nto bee jealous

poepel who giv thanke ar th happiest wons

Bill told the teacher that he didn't need to forgive anyone.

He said that his burgers and fries give him the strength to get people back.

But the teacher said that everyone needs to love others to enjoy their health.

She said that we all have to feel like we belong with others to make life happy.
The teacher said that the holidays were important for health.

She said that people need to celebrate and be happy.

But they have to be careful not to eat too much, not to drink and drive, and not be jealous.

People who give thanks are the happiest
ones.

10.

“ha poeple ar too nic on the holidayz,” sayd bil

“al tha doo is giv lov and gifts, an says nic things too poeple everywhere”

“well, wee wante to gets gifts,” sayd

“Ha, people are too nice on the holidays,” said Bill.

“All they do is give love and gifts, and say nice things to people everywhere.”

“Well, we want to get gifts,” said Amy,

DOL – My Health

amy, ben, ken, an pepe

“An hour parents, brotherz, sisetrz, and freinds should shar our lov ,” said tim

“I especially lov mi grandma,” said rosa

Ben, Ken, and Pepe.

“And our parents, brothers, sisters, and friends should share our love,” said Tim.

“I especially love my grandma,” said Rosa.

11.

“fi bil is goin to bee lik thate, I hop he has empty christmas stockings,” sayd ken

“NO,” asid the teachre, “thate is note hwo we forgive peopel.”

“Butte bil should bee punished too teahc him a lessone abuot how kindness an lov ar important four holidays,” sayd ben

“nO,” said the taecher, “just keeps treating him nic, an he will learn someda”

“If Bill is going to be like that, I hope he has empty Christmas stockings,” said Ken.

“No,” said the teacher, “that is not how we forgive people.”

“But Bill should be punished to teach him a lesson about how kindness and love are important for holidays,” said Ben.

“No,” said the teacher, “just keep treating him nicely, and he will learn, someday.”

DOL – My Health

12.

“fi yuo think lov an kindness ar importante four the holidays, whi do yuo yell att us?” asket bil

“an sometimes you gett angry att uss too,” hee sayd

“well, itt iz alrig too bee angry,” sayd th taecher

“wee jush has to be careful hwo we act when ew ar gettin our anger out”

th clas wsa glad thate the next guest was a doctor

“this iss becaus wee wil study jobz an careers necks,” sayd the teachre

“i waunt too bee a doctor,” say rosa

“ha, dilrs cant bee god doctorz, onle men,” sayd bill

“If you think love and kindness are important for the holidays, why do you yell at us?” asked Bill.

“And sometimes you get angry at us, too,” he said.

“Well, it is alright to be angry,” said the teacher.

“We just have to be careful how we act when we are getting our anger out.”

The class was glad that the next guest was a doctor.

This is because we will study jobs and careers next,” said the teacher.

“I want to be a doctor,” said Rosa.

“Ha, girls can’t be doctors, only men,” said Bill.